CHAUTAUQUA COMMITTEE
The Chautauqua committee arranged for a meeting between Mrs. M. Inez Hoover, field organizer for Ellison-White and the Chautauqua guarantors for Tuesday night, Mar. 28. Meeting held in the chamber of commerce room with about 15 present.
Mrs. Hoover stated that this was the first time in her seven years with the Ellison-White Co. that the committee in charge of arrangement that there was nothing left for her to do.
She heartily approved the plan of having captains in each block and systematically canvassing the city. She then spoke briefly on the various attractions that are scheduled for this community and said that the entertainment was if anything above the average.
Four hundred and seventy tickets have been distributed and most of them are sold. Those remaining unsold on Thursday of this week will be turned over to the school children and the American Legion for a whirlwind finish.
If you want to defeat the bonds then try to prevent people from learning the facts, and get them to fail to vote on the bonds, but get them to vote for officials only. In that way their failure to vote on the bonds will count as a "NO." For two-thirds of all votes cast must be "YES" to carry bonds. Learn the facts and do your duty and vote.
Go to the polls and vote "YES" on propositions No. 1 and 2.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

TORRANCE NEWS
Miss Emma Clever has returned from a week's visit at her aunt's (Mrs. Charles Batch) and to the Probert family at Hesperia.
Mr. and Mrs. William Curry of Glare Bay, Nova Scotia, visited Mr. and Mrs. Gus Bray of Androo Ave., Sunday. Mr. Curry is an uncle of Mr. Bray.
Mr. and Mrs. Burke of Los Angeles were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Murray of Androo avenue. Mrs. Burke and Mrs. Murray were childhood friends in Sydney, Nova Scotia.

Should a woman, out of gratitude give up the man of her heart and permit herself to be yoked to a scoundrel? See Benj. B. Hampton's splendid picturization of Zane Grey's novel, "The Mysterious Rider," a Hodgkinson release, at the Torrance Theatre Saturday, April 8, and learn the answer.
The funeral of Mrs. Mollie B. Romaine, mother of Harold F. Romaine of Torrance, took place last Friday from the Mottell Chapel, Long Beach. Dr. Henry Kendall Booth officiated. Interment was at Sunnyside. Mrs. Romaine, who has lived in Torrance about sixteen months, passed away in Los Angeles Thursday morning.

About fifty glass jobbers of Southern California visited the Torrance Glass Factory last Tuesday. After being shown through the various departments of the factory luncheon was served in the directors' room, which had been very tastefully decorated for the occasion. The result of this visit is being shown in the orders that are coming into the Los Angeles wholesale houses specifying the Torrance brand, which the jobbers declare is second to none in the United States.

MARATHON CLUB MEET
The Marathon Club of the Women's Benefit Association of the Macabees met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Geo. Watson of Androo avenue. Five hundred was played throughout the evening and dainty refreshments were served by three hostesses, Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Reper and Mrs. Recktenwald.

If there are 600 votes cast at this election 400 must be "YES" or the bonds do not carry, and it does not matter if there is not a single "NO." If 201 persons out of 600 fail to vote on the bonds the bonds do not carry even though not one person votes "No." Do not let the bonds fail because you did not do your duty and acquaint your self with the facts and therefore failed to vote.

If you believe in a democracy, fulfill your obligation as a part of the government and vote.

Jack Bellounds sought by trickery and guile to win the hand of Columbine, Wilson Moore loved her, too! And his love was honorable and decent. Who do you suppose won out in the long run? "The Mysterious Rider," Benj. B. Hampton's screen version of the Zane Grey novel, released by Hodgkinson will be shown at the Torrance Theatre Saturday, April 8th.

ROLE OF SPEED MAD YOUTH SUITS JOHNNY HINES
After all, there isn't as many factors contributing to success as is frequently claimed. Boked down into the essence, it is usually to be found that liking one's job, whatever it may be is the key to substantial success. Therein is furnished the reason why Johnny Torchy Hines' initial feature production, "Burn 'Em Up' Barnes," which is coming to the Torrance Theatre soon, is best fitted as a starring vehicle for this popular star.

Johnny Hines' chief delight is to act before a camera. But, next to that, he likes a fast racing car and a moonlight journey at high speed to one of the nearby coast resorts or far out into the Westchester hills. Brimful of "pep" and personality, in the studio or on the road he constantly calls for speed—and more speed. What he wants is action, and he will have it.
His role in "Burn 'Em Up' Barnes" is wholly fitting; since it is a whirlwind automobile racing story from the pen of Raymond L. Schrock, and Johnny is in action all of the time. The story concerns the experiences of "Burn 'Em Up' Barnes," the speed mad son of Whitney Barnes, millionaire manufacturer of high-powered automobiles, who by his complete indifference to everything save sensational road races incurs parental displeasure, resulting in his abruptly leaving home to prove that he can make his own way in the world without the aid of the Barnes name or millions.

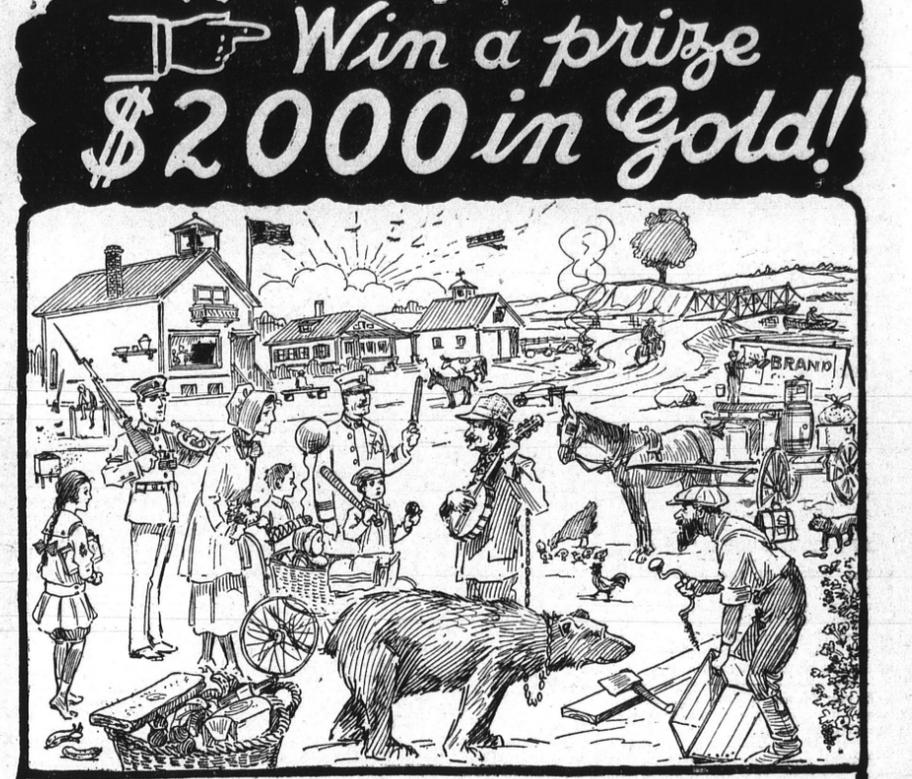

There is no government by the people if the people do not vote. For only in so doing can they be said to govern themselves.
I will give $250 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the cur or cur who deliberately threw out the poison which caused the death of any dog in the south end of Lomita.

CONVENTION OF WOMAN'S CLUB
On Thursday, March 30, Mesdames Charles Stock, Frank Clark, Rex Sach, James H. Milburn and H. E. Paige motored to Santa Monica to attend the Convention of the Los Angeles District Federation of Woman's Clubs. After the morning session Mrs. Stock and Mrs. Melburn attended the Press Department luncheon at the Miramar Hotel. The speaker of the afternoon was James W. Foley, who told them "How Club Women Appear to the Fun Makers." Another enjoyable feature was a lecture by Edward S. Curtis on "The American Indian."

HOLDING COMPANY DRILLING
The Torrance Holding Company has started drilling on their thirty acres directly west of Torrance on Carson avenue. The oil proposition for Torrance looks more favorable each day.
The bonds do not carry by two-thirds of all those voting on the bond propositions, but by two-thirds vote of all those voting at this election. Therefore do not fail to vote on the bonds, for a failure to vote on the bonds means that your vote is a "NO" if you vote for officials only.

Win a prize $2000 in Gold!
HOW MANY OBJECTS BEGINNING WITH 'B' CAN YOU FIND IN THIS PICTURE?

That is what you are to determine. Try it. It is easy. Without any trouble whatever, you can readily see such objects as "bear," "basket," "boy," etc. Can't you? Well, the others are just as easy to see, but the idea is who can find the most. Fifteen big cash prizes will be given for the fifteen best lists of "B-words" submitted in answer to this puzzle. The person sending in the largest and nearest correct list of visible objects shown in the picture, starting with the letter "B", will win first prize; second best, second prize, etc.

WE INVITE YOU TO JOIN IN—LOTS OF FUN
This Newspaper has made arrangements with the National Puzzle Contest Co. whereby our readers are permitted to take part in an interesting and amusing Puzzle Game—a puzzle that is different from the ordinary—a game in which all can participate.
